The Cohongoroota

Shepherd College,

Shepherdstown, West Virginia

Wilma Wolfe, Editor

Whether you were finishing your college career or just beginning it, 1960 was a memorable year for you, the students who are Shepherd College. The 1960 Cohongoroota is proud to present this record of those events which you will want to remember. . .

EXPANDING SHEPHERD

The new women's dormitory, after many years in the dreaming stage, has now reached the planning stage. Construction is to begin this summer. The residence hall will be built on an axis with the recently completed men's dormitory on a commanding site overlooking the Potomac River. The three-storied structure will house 156 women, and will cost an estimated $861,000.

During the last decade, Shepherd College has added the Men's residence hall, the Health and Physical Education Building, the Social Science Hall, the football stadium, and acquired additional land for expansion of the physical plant. A landscaping program for the beautification of the campus is going forward.

The President and Mrs. Ikenberry, after spending one of the busiest of their active ten years at Shepherd, relax in the President's Cottage. Both of the Ikenberrys share in student and faculty affairs.

The President and Governor Cecil Underwood.

President Oliver S. Ikenberry

One of the most rewarding parts of President Ikenberry's work is contact with students. Among them are Governor Underwood, a former student at Salem College who spoke at the Shepherd Commencement in 1959. Janie Renn, this year's freshman, is the fourth member of her family currently attending Shepherd, and James Ansel, a Shepherd graduate, in his duties as President of the Board, often visits our campus.

President Ikenberry greets James Ansel, '40, of Moorefield, President of the West Virginia Board of Education, and Lacy I. Rice, Sr., Martinsburg, Vice-President of the Board.

REGISTRATION

Freshman Week started with a bang on Registration Day with the largest freshman class enrollment in the history of Shepherd College. Closely following Registration Day is the time-honored tradition of the freshman beanie. This cherished beanie is the freshman's identification; it will become a part of his college attire for the next few weeks. Aside from the privilege of wearing the "beanie" the freshman is also "privileged" to attend all school assemblies.

"Got your assembly tickets?"

"Keep those beanies on!"

After a lively election John Saville, incoming president of the student body, receives the gavel from Pete Weed, outgoing president.

John Saville presents trophies to Nikki Isherwood, Elizabeth Ruppenthal, Fred Staats, Pete Weed, and Lee Keebler for outstanding leadership throughout their four years at Shepherd.

Shepherd's students find a quiet atmosphere for study and an opportunity for keeping up with world affairs and home town news in the library.

An extensive record library adds to the enrichment of students' cultural life.

Until funds are available for the scheduled library building at Shepherd, an additional reading room is being provided in Knutti Hall for the fall of 1960.

The Drama and Music Departments presented a two act musical "Plain and Fancy" in March under the direction of Dr. Vera Malton and Dr. Guy Frank.

The story of "Plain and Fancy" is more plain than fancy. It concerns a young New Yorker and his sophisticated girl friend who drive down into Amish country to sell a piece of property he has inherited but has never seen. In this neighborhood of Bird-in-Hand they find themselves out of their metropolitan world, in a land of quaint customs, stern morals, and "Pennsylvania Dutch" English.

HOMECOMING

Dedication of the Shepherd College new athletic stadium featured the annual college Homecoming with other phases of the program extended to cover most of the day.

It was estimated some 3,000 persons visited the college and campus during the day. The crowd at the stadium was put at 2,000.

The new stadium is another step in Shepherd's expansion program.

Officials present at dedication of the new stadium are Dr. Oliver S. Ikenberry, President of Shepherd College; Henry L. Ash, State Commissioner of Finance Administration, Charleston, W. Va.; W. P. C. Perry, Charles Town, W. Va., Jefferson County representative to the House of Delegates; and James Ansel, president of the State Board of Education, Moorefield, W. Va.

MORE HOMECOMING

An important part of Shepherd's Homecoming is the Shepherd Ram. A traditional figure at Shepherd, Ike II is a symbol of a fighting spirit.

The band and majorette corps make a very attractive sight during half-time festivities at the Homecoming game.

This year Homecoming had a special meaning to the majorettes and band, because it was the dedication of the new Shepherd stadium.

In its second year as part of Homecoming program the barbecued chicken dinner proved to be extremely popular. It will probably be a traditional event.

This year seven hundred people attended the barbecue.

PHI SIGMA CHI

This was indeed a full year for the Phi Sigma Chi Sorority. Not only did they have the usual receptions and parties but two of the members captured the coveted crowns of Queen of the TKE's and Queen of the Thetas. Many of the Phi Sigma Chi members held the position of president in such organizations as: Kappa Delta Pi, Home Economics Club, Beta Chi Phi Mu, Student Christian Association, Senior Class, and Yearbook Editor.

The Spring highlights included the Spring Cotillion, the Dreamland Rush Party, the slumber party, and the initiation banquet at which the pledges and new officers were installed.

But all of these functions were overshadowed by the formal pledging of the Phi Sigma Chi Sorority as Beta Delta Chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma National Sorority. The formal initiation and re-installation of the chapter will occur next Fall.

THETA SIGMA CHI

The oldest fraternity at Shepherd College, the Beta Chapter of Theta Sigma Chi, was chartered on November 3, 1931. At the time of its introduction, Dr. William H. Reese, the founder of this chapter, was Professor of Biology at Shepherd College.

Through the many diversified activities of Theta Sigma Chi, the members have never forgotten the purposes for which their fraternity was founded: to promote character and brotherhood and to uphold the ideals of Shepherd College.

Through the years, some of the activities that Theta Sigma Chi has engaged in have been the annual awarding of scholarships, the Sweetheart Dance to honor the Theta Sweetheart, and fostering of those qualities that will bring respect to Shepherd College and to Theta Sigma Chi.

The Picket, in its sixty-sixth year of publication, represents the college students.

Under editor Lee Keebler, the staff of the Picket spent many hours during the past year preparing and publishing a newspaper of which Shepherd students can be proud. Cooperation and long hours on the part of editors and reporters were required to accomplish this purpose.

The Picket, published twice monthly, serves to keep the students aware of campus news, activities, and features. The viewpoint of the students is reflected in the editorial columns which propose and support fairness and good sportsmanship in all phases of college life.

John Saville, Ann Harris, Wilma Wolfe, Edgar Shepherd.

Under editor Wilma Wolfe, and adviser Mrs. Veta Lee Smith, the yearbook staff worked very diligently to publish the 1960 Cohongoroota.

The combined efforts of Mrs. Smith, Wilma Wolfe, John Saville, Ann Harris, Edgar Shepherd, Bob Grant, Dolores Bishoff, Geri Fry, Gary Lushbaugh, Bill Hutchins, Bob Keeley, Larry Gerber, and Marie DeMasi, were required to publish our yearbook. In the last minute rush Beatrice Carman, Joyce Teets and Patricia Billmeyer came to the aid of the staff.

This organization offers an excellent opportunity for those who play musical instruments to continue in their instrumental careers. Participation in this group is available either for credit or on the basis of co-curricular activity. It presents programs for the community and college.

Throughout this year the band has made numerous public appearances both on and off campus. These appearances included the Harpers Ferry Centennial, football games, high school assembly concerts, college assemblies, a Broadway musical, and formal concerts on campus. The final appearance by the group on campus each year traditionally, is Commencement, during which an outstanding senior performer is featured with the band.

As has been the custom for the past few years, the Shepherd College Band introduced new works for band to the public in its concert during the Fine Arts Festival in May.

The MENC, Music Educator's National Conference of Shepherd College was organized in September, 1958, to give music students, interested in music education, ideas and methods which are important in teaching music in the public schools. There is a great need for better music programs in the American schools. This organization helps the student to plan and provide for situations they will meet in their future teaching careers.

The group undertakes a variety of activities throughout the school year. Field trips to concerts, leading operas and plays, are planned. Guest speakers are invited to tell the organization of the future in music education that lies ahead for them.

Casey Day and Joe Hockman lead the Rams from the dressing room for the second half.

CO-CAPTAINS

Co-captains Casey Day and Joe Hockman.

"L. P." was a great asset pivot this year and being a senior, his absence will be missed.

Kenny, who played his high school basketball at Loundon High, has proven his ability by playing at forward on this year's team.

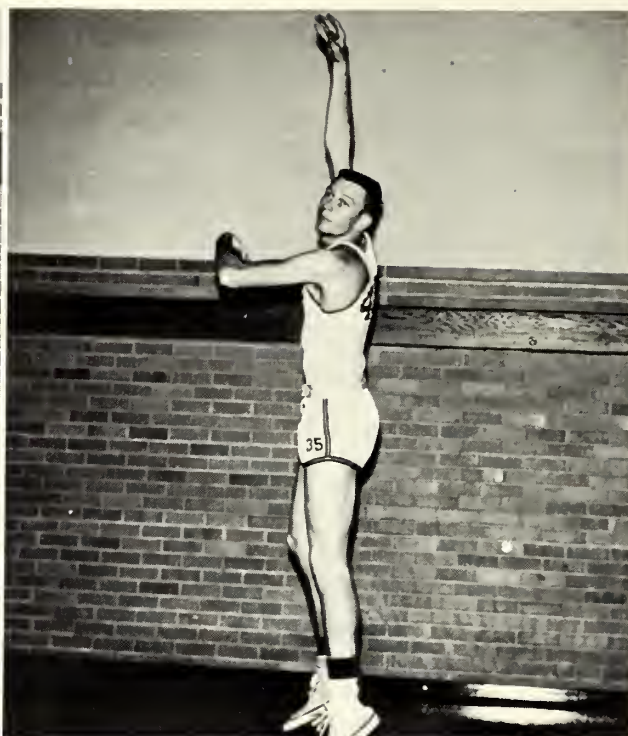

BASKETBALL

*First row: Rutherford, Swartz, Bieshields, Hannas, Shook, Douglass, Conner, Dean, Hall, Coach Wireman.
Second row: Manager—Whitmore, Duvall, Culbert, Martin, Close, Tucker, Hanf, Burns, Ducan, Manager—Spencer, Assistant Coach—Becker.*

George has proved his adroitness in the sport of basketball by playing three years for the Shepherd Rams. George was a great "hustler" and always did his best.

This is Bern's first year on the squad and after the fine job he did at forward he looks promising for next year's team.

BASKETBALL

Dick has played only one year of basketball for the Rams, but the way he maneuvered himself on the court this year would lead one to believe he was a veteran. Dick shows great aggressiveness.

Al is another new-comer to the Ram squad, and did a fine job against stiff opposition. His one hand jump shot has sent many two points to the scoreboard.

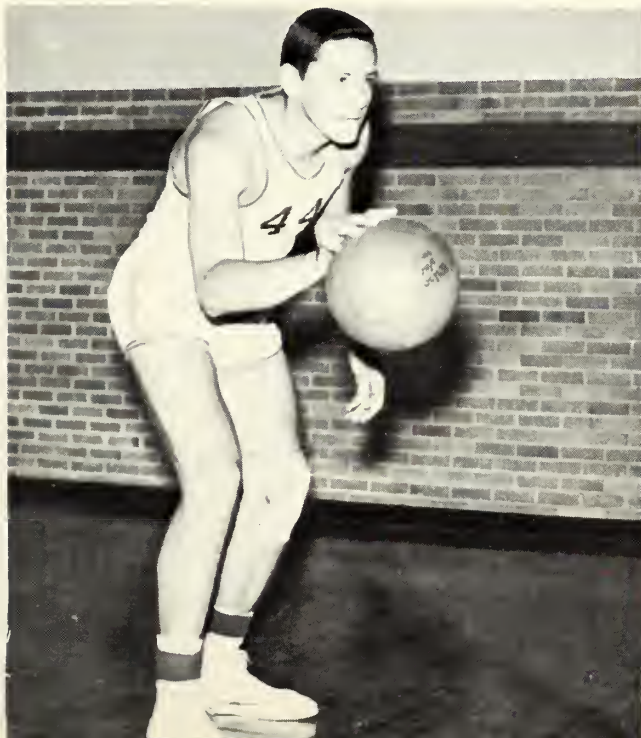

Dean, Rutherford, Martin, Coach Wireman, Conner, Hannas.

BASKETBALL

This is Charlie's first year for playing for the Rams, and after his performance this year, you can look for him on next year's team.

Harry is another of the Rams veteran basketball players. Having played two years of ball, Harry saw a lot of action in center this year and did a fine job.

Morgan State
Catholic University
West Virginia Tech

TRACK

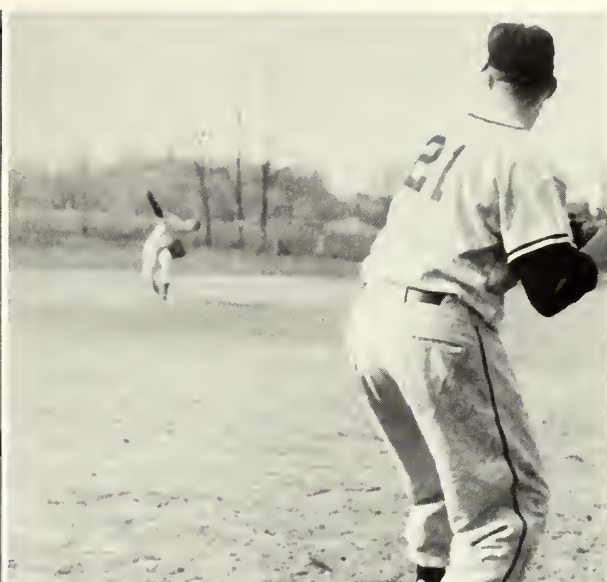

Coach Riggleman will run the Rams cinder team this year.

1960 marks Shepherd's first year for a track team. The first year for any sport is tough and we wish the Rams success this year and for bigger and better teams in the future.

Coach Wireman, Shepherd's new baseball coach, hopes his first season will be successful.

Bootsie Leonard, Shepherd's leading batter, gets set to meet the ball as it comes hurling in from the mound.

BASEBALL

Bootsie Leonard, Doc Whitmore in the foreground, Dickie Duncan and Dick Knode, on the bench, discuss their chances for the game in the dressing room.

Spider Conner shoots for two points. Will he make it?

Dick Duncan and Harlen Hott battle for the rebound.

INTRAMURALS

Teke B's battle the Teke A's.

Intramurals at Shepherd provide outlets for cooped up energy.

This year the Teke A's captured the volleyball and basketball championship.

"I got it," yells Pudgey.

INTRAMURALS

Winston and Bootsie are too late.

The girls' intramural program is more extensive because we haven't any varsity girls' sports.

The Independents captured the basketball championship while the Phi Sigs won the volleyball.

Joyce Holden of the Phi Sigs won the archery and Diane Ingrick of the Independents won the ping-pong.

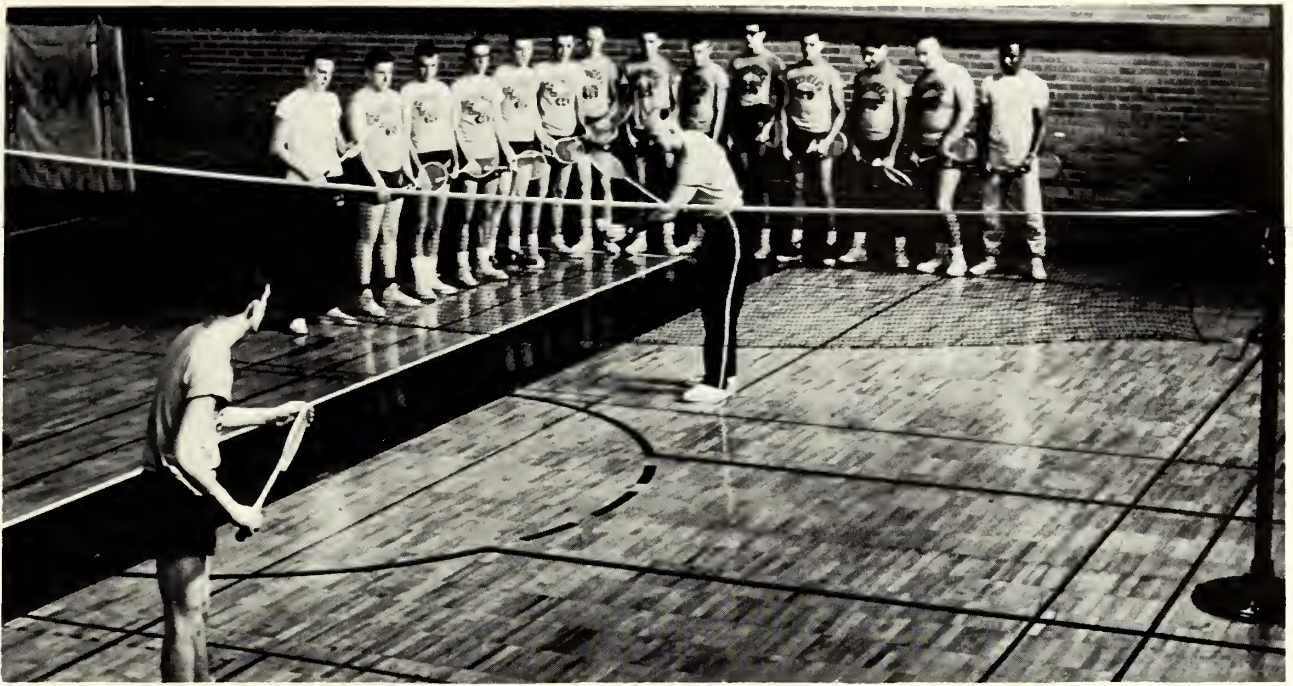

Archery is one of many individual sports available for exercising at Shepherd.

INTRAMURALS

Each year the Snow Bowl, played during the first deep snow, is enjoyed by the men. This year the Freshmen and Sophomores defeated the Juniors and Seniors.

Badminton class.

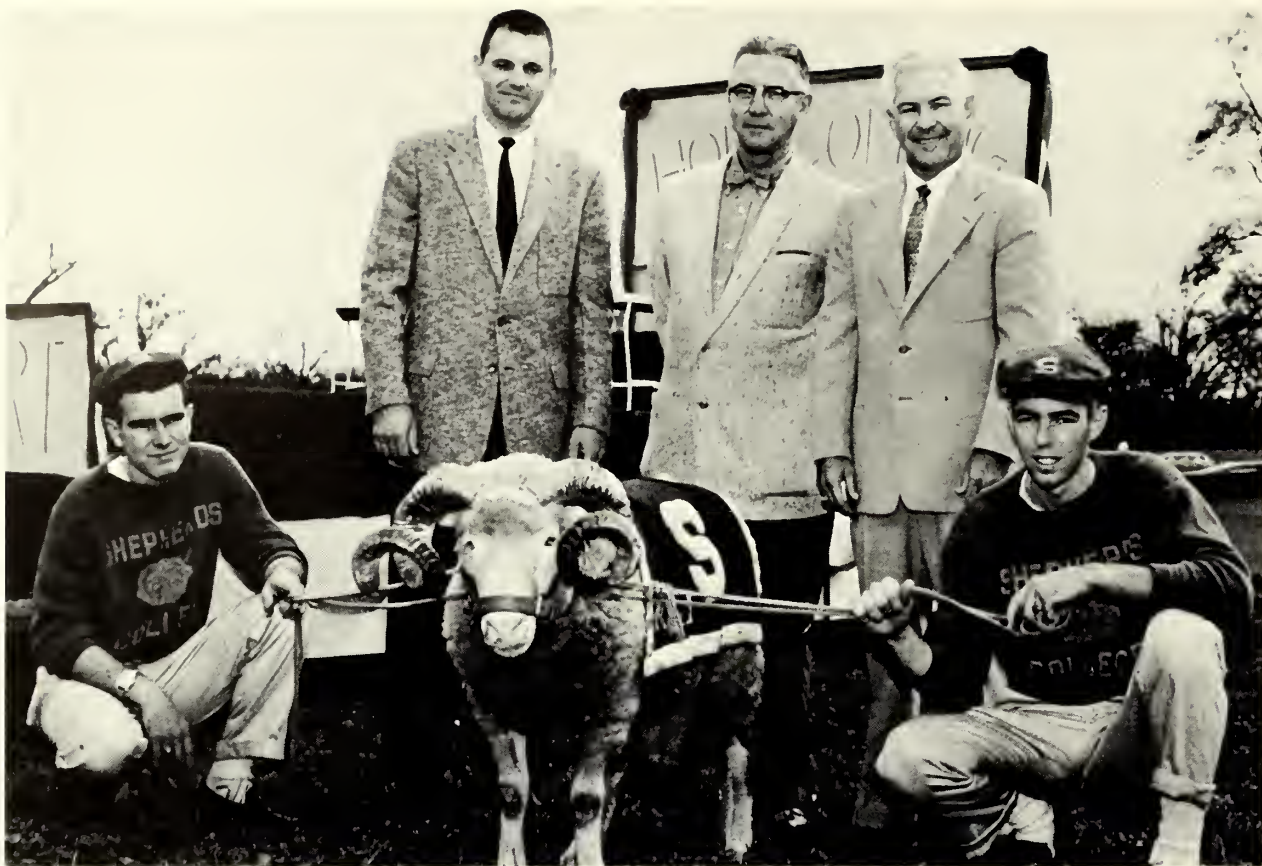

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Through instructions in the physical education classes, the students are able to participate in the extensive intramural program offered to them.

Use of buddy system to assist each other in shallow water drill on good floating position. Instructors in charge, Mr. Fieger and Don Raynor.

Swimming class.

BOOSTERS

"Boosting" the Rams on to victory, Ike II and the cheerleaders are a great asset to school spirit at games and rallies.

The cheerleaders who have done such a terrific job in directing the student body in cheers are Elizabeth Ruppenthal, Nikki Isherwood, Mary-Charles Adams, and Pat Martin.

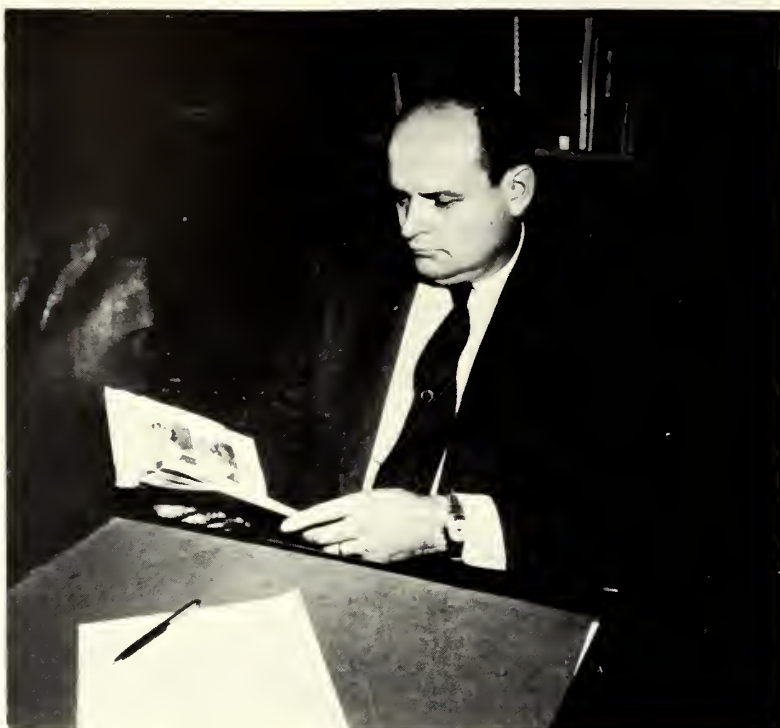

ADMINISTRATION & FACULTY

Dean Slonaker is the man who guards Shepherd's academic standards. He is always ready to advise the students and faculty on questions pertaining to the "schedule" and classroom programs. He is an honor graduate of Shepherd College and among his publications is a history of the college.

Dean Harry, a new member of the administration, works with the students on social and personal problems. He also serves as counselor for the men students at Shepherd College.

Dean Cullison, although kept quite busy with her administrative duties, welcomes any opportunity to serve as counselor to the women on campus. She listens to individual problems and supervises student organizations.
